Chick Carter was one of those unique creations of radio. The "adopted" son of Nick Carter was created to capture the Juvenile market of war-time America. His nemesis throughout the serial was the "Rattler".

The program debuted a scant 3 months after Nick Carter and expired two years later -- between VE and VJ days.

The only known titles are listed separately. Most of these early episodes were co-scripted by Messrs. E.Gruskin and Walter Gibson (of Shadow fame). Mr. Gibson was also active in the early episodes of Nick Carter.
